

The Delaware Department of Transportation officially opened the new Puncheon Run connector on the south side of Dover on Tuesday afternoon. The $26.7 million, 2.6-mile-long four-lane highway connects the Del. 1 toll road with U.S. 13, enabling both north- and southbound motorists to bypass Dover. DelDOT expects the new road to be used by as many as 16,500 vehicles a day.

The News Journal/GARY EMEIGH

FEELING PUNCHY

